Everyday Gospel Living: We're thankful to share how God is working here in Argentina in each of these quarterly newsletters. Normally we share a list of what's been happening, but this newsletter, we just wanted to share with you an overview of our daily lives. Each day brings new opportunities to speak the name of Christ—in ordinary moments, relationships, and ministry.

The Message We Live For: The Gospel is the reason we came—the truth that shapes everything. God, the holy Creator, made us for Himself, but we have all turned away. Because of sin, we deserve judgment. Yet in love, God sent His Son Jesus to live perfectly, die in our place, and rise again, offering forgiveness and eternal life to all who repent and believe. That message fuels our ministry.

What Gospel Work Looks Like: Gospel work here isn't flashy—it's daily. It's shared in the quiet conversation with a friend at church, the counseling session in our living room, the sermon, or communion shared together with our church family. The gospel changes us in our hearts first as we seek to live more holy lives ourselves, and then every moment is a chance to proclaim and live that good news.

At the Seminary: As Academic Director and Biblical counseling professor at William Carey Seminary, Eric helps train pastors and counselors for ministry across Latin America. He recently spoke at the seminary's annual conference and will teach "Introducción a la Consejería Bíblica" in January 2026.

In Friendships: We're thankful for new and deepening relationships with neighbors, our kid's baseball teammates, and others. Please pray for boldness to share Christ's hope in everyday conversations.

At Home: Our first ministry is to one another and our kids. Homeschooling gives daily moments to talk about sin, grace, and the Savior who loves us. We are so thankful for our growing boys and the challenge it is to raise them to be Christ-like men.

Looking Ahead: May the Lord use our small efforts for His Great Commission here in Argentina. We pray this encourages you to live and speak the Gospel wherever you are. Thank you for partnering with us in this work! Watch for another update soon with 2026 projects and needs. Until then, praise God with us for the Gospel that gives daily hope!

With love,

Group Discussion Questions

1. Read 2 Timothy 3v1-17 (in the CSB), and consider the following questions:

2. Looking at vss. 1-5 – do we see people like this today? Such people are always present. Paul seems to think such people will be prevalent even within the church. How are we supposed to discern them so as to avoid them?

3. Looking at vss. 6-9 - This passage speaks of foolishness and a false kind of learning. What does foolishness and false learning look like in this passage, and what might they look like in the world around us today as well?

4. In vs. 10-13, Paul says to Timothy that he has “followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, and endurance, and persecutions and sufferings;” how is it that following the way of Jesus – which Jesus claims will lead to rest for our souls – also looks like persecution and suffering?

5. In vss. 14-17 what is Paul’s encouragement to Timothy (and to us!) for staying the course in our faith? What outcomes in our lives should we look for as we obey Paul’s instructions here? Ask yourself, “What would these look like in my own life today?”

Pastor Kurt and Sara Staeuble are leading a marriage series this fall where we will gain a greater theological understanding of what God has in mind for marriage. BEING AND MAKING DISCIPLES

WEDNESDAYS
6:30 PM
CBC Gathering Room

Pastors Nat and Zach are leading a Wednesday Gathering option for adults, where we'll follow along with Pastor Kurt's Sunday message series for the fall titled "Marks of a Disciple." Join in the discussion each week as we discover and practice together what it means to "seek first the Kingdom of God."

DISCIPLESHIP GROUPS (D-GROUPS)

D-Groups: All adults are invited to join a discipleship group. Growing an intimate love for and trusting obedience to Jesus is one of our key values; we call this discipleship. We encourage our church family to find various forms of healing, meaningful community, and spiritual maturity demonstrated in love for God and others through discipleship. D-Groups of 4-6 people and other forms of mentoring are organized by mature, trusted leaders in our church towards this end.
Sign up at the table in the lobby or email: Pastor Zach (zach@cdabible.org).

MISSION TRIP

CALE FAMILY THAILAND MISSION LUNCHEON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, at 12:00 PM CBC GYM

Dear Church Family,

We invite you to join the Cale family as they embark on an important short-term mission trip to Thailand this December with Life Impact International to bring hope and healing to children affected by the devastating effects of child trafficking and exploitation.

Today after church, we will hold a lunch gathering where the Cale family will share more about this ministry and how they plan to serve the children and workers in Thailand. We encourage you to come learn about this mission and explore the ways you can support them through prayer, financial giving, and encouragement. Together, we can partner with the Cale family in this vital work.

"Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world."
James 1:27
