The Good Samaritan "...Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. The next day, he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said..." (Luke 10:34-35) Jesus shares a story of a man traveling to Jericho from Jerusalem. He is attacked by robbers, stripped, beaten, and abandoned. People passed him, not paying him much attention (much like how many homeless people today are treated) or making any effort to help the man, except for a Samaritan. He saw the man and took him to where he could get the help he needed. Jesus asks his company, "Who do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" We all know the answer—it was the one who had compassion. Jesus told His listeners to go and do likewise: to be like the Samaritan who helped his neighbor. To those of you who support what we do: You are the Good Samaritan. You provide a safe place where people in crisis can come to for healing and often turns into long-term life change.

Being a good neighbor is providing for those in need of support and help, especially in the storms of life and cold weather. Food, shelter, love, dignity, spiritual healing—that's how we become whole. Our goal is to help those who come to us in crisis become God-dependent, contributing members of society. Looking at the stories of lives changed—a safe, clean, healthy environment was often all it took for the next step. And many stay with us, not just a short time, but often much longer for recovery.

As you partner with us, the story of the good Samaritan is lived through you. The Samaritan didn't just drop the man off at the inn; he invested his time and resources to ensure the man could heal. Thank you for trusting us and for embodying the spirit of compassion.

We are truly honored to be entrusted with your resources. You keep the inn open. Together, let's commit to making this year one of generosity and compassion, reaching out to those who feel abandoned and broken by the world. By channeling our efforts into uplifting others, we can create meaningful change and foster a spirit of hope. Let's embrace this opportunity to empower those in need. Here's to a year of kindness and positive impact! —Phil Altmeyer, CEO
