New Life in Christ: What an absolute privilege to attend the baptism of two men from a local church we've had a lot of interaction with this past year. So beautiful to see what God is doing in this place, growing a community together in faith in Jesus Christ. Our debt has been paid, our Savior has conquered death, and we can live our lives to His glory.

Language School: A new season is on its way here, and we started back to language school in September. It always feels good to see a few familiar faces amongst the students to get the nerves and fear of making mistakes in line. You take a big gulp, swallow any pride you may have, and jump into fumbling thru the disjointed attempt at speaking a language you desperately want to retain and understand. One day it might feel natural and fluid, but pay attention to where you are today and be ok with the fumbles. One day at a time. One try closer to fluency. One more mistake to remember and learn from. One more frustrated sigh or goofy giggle at a time.

Fishing for Dinner: We recently discovered that one of the grocery stores here will cook fish for you in-house to then take home! With so many fish that are new and unknown to us, we jumped at the chance to try one. The fishmonger gladly talked us through the options, talked us through de-boning and filleting it, and also what he seasoned it with. Today, we chose rap (in English, monkfish), and it was delicious! It was mild flavor with the texture of lobster, so big win!

Prayer Requests:

- Pray for continued growth and success learning Catalan so that we can more effectively build relationships and express our faith.
- Pray for the kids as they learn and grow in their school. Ask the Lord to give them courage to face new experiences and create friendships.
- Pray for us as we work together in a church through worship and teaching. Pray that we will continue to have strong support among the other Christian leaders and will be an encouragement to others as well.
- Pray for times of refreshment and adventure to help make the mission experience full and beautiful for our family while we are in a distant land.
- Pray for God to protect our health, strength, and spiritual fervor as we share the Gospel with people needing the Lord Jesus.
- Pray for open hearts to hear the Gospel message and respond in faith.

Blessings,

Mark and Andrea

Veterans Day: Pray for our veterans and those who lead and protect our country and communities. Thank them for their service! Pray also that we would remember we are ultimately citizens of Heaven (Philippians 3:20). Pray for each of us to be faithful in our role as Ambassadors for Christ in the world (2 Corinthians 5:20). Pray for ways to be a blessing to our communities (Jeremiah 29:7). Pray that we would put our ultimate trust in our sovereign God and not in earthly leaders (Psalm 146:3).

Ken Robledo: Having been diagnosed with prostate cancer, please pray for God's healing power toward his treatment procedures on Tuesday, the 12th and Friday, the 22nd, and for successful recovery outcomes.

Emily Harwood: Please continue praying for Emily as she faces ongoing physical therapy to recover from recent surgeries. Pray for concerns about lumpectomies planned for this month. Ask the Lord to renew Emily's strength, and pray for her loving and supportive family who take care of her. Emily (age 22) appreciates cards, so contact the church office for her mailing address.

Missy Korhummel: Please pray as she works on clearing out her current home, selling some items, and preparing to stage the current home to make the sale go smoothly. Missy is trusting the Lord to provide for her, and she is thankful for her church family's support.

Diego and Tammi Morales: CBC Missionaries returning to Chiapas, Mexico are stopping mid-trip to wait until a stomach bug clears up for the kids and other members of the travel party. Please pray for safety and restored health so they may continue their long drive to Chiapas. Prayerfully consider giving a gift to cover the unexpected expenses of staying in a hotel while they recover.

Inviting All Men!

“Prayer is the means by which we push back the curse that’s infected the world and infected us.”
– Tylor Staton

A new prayer gathering for men has started up at our church, Thursday mornings at 6:00 AM, in the prayer room at CDA Bible Church. As men, we all too often rush in to solve problems and fix broken things in our own strength when, in truth, our own will and strength often fall short, especially when we’re talking about spiritual things. The quote by pastor and author Tyler Staton is our inspiration for this prayer gathering - that the men of our church would come together regularly to fight on our knees against our enemy - the Devil – on behalf of God’s Kingdom and for the sake of our families, our church, our community, and the world. That we would implore our almighty Father to do the things that we can’t – to change hearts, to subdue sin, to push back the darkness, to restrain evil.

Here’s how this gathering works: at 6:00 AM, when you come in from outside through the prayer room doors (the northwest corner of the building, along 4th St.), there will be a sign on the inside wall stating the prayer theme for the day. The prayer room will already be set for a time of silent individual prayer and reflection; enter the room and use the resources of the room to wade into God’s presence silently. Then, at 6:15 AM, the prayer host will call whoever is present to pray together aloud. The host might offer a focusing thought or Scripture, will offer an opening prayer, and then whoever wants to pray aloud may. When it seems that everyone is done praying, but no later than 7:00 AM, the host will close the prayer gathering, and the participants will depart.

If you’re a guy of any age (boys under 18 need to attend with an adult), and if your heart is stirred to pray after God’s kingdom, then this gathering is for you.

Grace and peace to you in Jesus’ name,
Nathanael Schey || Executive Pastor

A Living Sacrifice

Pastor Nat Schey—Sunday AM—Nov. 10, 2024

Message Notes:

1. Jesus came to o_____ the devil’s domain of darkness and u_____ in God’s kingdom of light and life.
2. God e_____ our loyalty, our transformation, and our priestly activity through the o_____ of the Holy Spirit into our lives.
3. The answer to the question “What does all this mean for CDA Bible Church?”: Because of Gods’ k_____ and m_____ in rescuing us from the domain of darkness, we should offer our bodies back to God as a l_____ s_____.

Romans 12v1-21 (NLT)

¹And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him. ²Don’t copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God’s will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.

³Because of the privilege and authority God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don’t think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us. ⁴Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, ⁵so it is with Christ’s body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

⁶In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. ⁷If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. ⁸If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

⁹Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them. Hate what is wrong. Hold tightly to what is good. ¹⁰Love each other with genuine affection, and take delight in honoring each other. ¹¹Never be lazy, but work hard and serve the Lord enthusiastically. ¹²Rejoice in our confident hope. Be patient in trouble, and keep on praying. ¹³When God's people are in need, be ready to help them. Always be eager to practice hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you. Don't curse them; pray that God will bless them. ¹⁵Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep. ¹⁶Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all! ¹⁷Never pay back evil with more evil. Do things in such a way that everyone can see you are honorable. ¹⁸Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone.

¹⁹Dear friends, never take revenge. Leave that to the righteous anger of God. For the Scriptures say, "I will take revenge; I will pay them back," says the LORD. ²⁰Instead, "If your enemies are hungry, feed them. If they are thirsty, give them something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals of shame on their heads."

²¹Don't let evil conquer you, but conquer evil by doing good.

VESPERS PRAYER GATHERING

God's people have always been a people of prayer. Psalm 55 declares: "As for me, I will call upon God, and the LORD shall save me. Evening and morning and at noon I will pray, and cry aloud, and He shall hear my voice". Jesus teaches us to "pray at all times" (Matt. 5v44), and likewise, Paul encourages the church to "pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5v16).

We want to be a church family that entrusts ourselves and this world to the Living God through prayer at all times and in all ways. We want to be a church known for our prayerful dependence on God. It is because of this that we want to invite you to a time of evening prayer on November 24.

In many times and seasons across the history of the Church of Jesus, his disciples would gather in the evening for special times of prayer and worship, praise and silence, intercession and confession—this has traditionally been called Vespers. Vespers means "Evening." It is simply an old word used by the church across time to denote a special call to prayer in the evening hours of the day; this is what we are inviting you into—a time of concentrated prayer in the evening, a time of Vespers.

Would you join us to pray, worship, and wait on God? We really look forward to what He will do as we come together for His glory, our good, and the love of our city.
